

Village Will Salute Constitution

Following the village of Dansville's designation as a Bicentennial community, Mayor Michael Kane has proclaimed the week of Sept. 17 as Constitution Week for observance of the 200th anniversary of the United States Constitution.

Dansville received its official designation from the New York State Commission on the Bicentennial last month after Quentin Masolotte, North Dansville Town Historian, was named the local coordinator for the observance.

In his proclamation, Kane stated: "Whereas, our founders, in order to secure the blessings of liberty for themselves and their posterity, did ordain and establish a Constitution for the United States of America, and

"Whereas, it is of the greatest import that all citizens fully understand the provisions and principles contained in the Constitution in order to support it, preserve it, and protect it, and "Whereas, Sept. 17, 1987, marks the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution, and

"Whereas, it is fitting and proper to accord official recognition to this memorable anniversary, and to the patriotic exercises that will commemorate this occasion,

"Now, Therefore, I, Michael D. Kane, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor of the Village of Dansville in the State of New York, do hereby proclaim the week of Sept. 17 as Constitution Week in the Village of Dansville, and urge all citizens to give special attention to the Constitution of the United States of America and to the rights, privileges, and responsibilities of citizenship.

"In witness whereof, I have set the Village of Dansville to be my hand and caused the Seal of affixed on Sept. 8, 1987."

Plan Camporee For Girl Scouts

Dansville Girl Scouts will attend a camporee at Camp Pinewood over the Sept. 25-27 weekend. It will be open to all registered girls and adult leaders.

Among the activities planned are fire safety, compass reading, knot tying and reflector over cooking. Some of the scouts will have a chance to do bridging and green circle activities.

Check-in is scheduled from 5 to 8 p.m. on Sept. 25 followed by troop free time. Saturday will start with a flag ceremony and the scheduled programs. There will be a division camp fire for all with a special flag-burning ceremony.

Those interested in attending are urged to phone 335-3784 or 335-2074 for further information.

Group Schedules Dansville Picnic

The Kidney Foundation of Upstate New York invites all area kidney patients and their families to attend a support group picnic Saturday in Dansville.

The outing is scheduled for 11 a.m. at the home of support group members Clayton and Joyce Williams of Valley View Trailer Park. Those attending are asked to bring a dish to pass and a lawn chair. Transportation can be arranged and reservations may be made by phoning 244-8393.

Concerns

It is important for you to know the school staff members who will share your care and concern for your child. Talk with them. Ask questions. Learn what programs and services are offered and the policies for handling special needs, emergency care, pupil health records, and parental notices. Also share with the staff member any special health problems, needs or concerns your child may have—you can help make sure that health problems do not become obstacles to learning.

HONOR YOUR ELDERS, SOME DAY
YOU'LL BE THERE YOURSELF

Age is the odometer by which we mark the milestones on our journey of life, and yet some people seem to get better mileage than others. For reasons of vanity, good health or the absence of any signs of aging, they wait longer to proclaim themselves as senior citizens. In fact, it is hard to believe that some of these youthful-looking people can be grandparents. Nonetheless, regardless of how they look or act, our elders deserve our respectful attention and love. Children should be taught this by the example we set for them, so that what would otherwise be an uncomfortable generation gap can be turned into a rewarding exchange of ideas and experiences for both young and old, whether they be grandparents or just acquaintances. Our House of Worship teaches us to revere our elders, and to remember that we will be there ourselves some day.

We grow neither better nor worse as we grow old; we must take our own lives. Ask thy father and thy mother, they will tell thee. —Discernment 52-7
